

Story I - Course Catalog

- As an instructor, I can create a description of a course so that prospective participants can learn about it.
- As a site visitor, I can view a detailed page about each course so that I can learn all about it.
- As a site visitor, I can browse a catalog of all courses available so that I can pick the right one for me.

Story II - Account Management

- As a site visitor, I can create an account so that I can track my progress.
- As a participant, I can manage my account so that it reflects my current information.
- As a participant, I can view a list of all courses I've taken

Story III - Course Creation

- As an instructor, I can upload videos to be part of a course so that participants can watch those videos.
- As an instructor, I can create a quiz to include in a video course so that participants can take those quizzes to ensure they are learning.
- As an instructor, I indicate whether a discussion forum is part of a course so that I can add a forum to some but not all courses.
- As an instructor, I can indicate the schedule for a course so that prospective participants and participants can see what course elements will be presented each week and what they'll be.
- As an instructor, I can set the publication date for course elements (for a scheduled course) so that items become available when I want and not sooner.
- As an instructor, I can add subtitles to any video so that it is more accessible.
